

ATOMOS

STORYBOARD

JULY 2025

Hi John, here's what's new this month!

In this edition of Storyboard, discover how Robert Rodriguez of Point.360 uses ATOMOSphere to speed up dailies, simplify post production, and support local filmmakers. Learn how annual ATOMOSphere members enjoy special discounts at the Atomos online store too!

Meanwhile, portrait photographer and content creator Walter van Dusen explains how his innovative mobile rolling rig, powered by Atomos monitors, captures interviews at trade shows.

Cinematographer Craig Rhodes-Harrison captures breathtaking landscapes and wildlife in South Africa's most extreme environments using the Ninja monitor-recorder.

Plus, music producer and video editor Maks Histibe uses the Ninja Ultra to document life in war-ravaged Kyiv, revealing both devastation and resilience through powerful footage.

And finally, Caton Technology use Shinobi II monitors and StudioSonic headphones to broadcast a live J-Pop concert to cinema audiences.
